Beautifully designed with a wonderful color, this is the last batch from our autumn sale! Each pair is a one-of-a-kind piece, which explains the low price. These shoes are brand new, unused, possibly from a display or tried on by a customer. This auction is for a pair of men's leather half-boots, both the exterior and interior crafted from high-quality cowhide leather. The shoes are laced up in the front. Please note that the actual appearance of the shoes is even more beautiful compared to the ones portrayed in the pictures.
